Terms and Conditions

The Avenue Hove (Zamani Catering limited)

The Avenue Hove & its staff reserve the right to refuse service at any time and without providing a reason.

We do not tolerate abuse of any kind towards staff. Abuse may lead to an individual or the entire party being asked to leave.

The non-refundable Hire Fee must be paid in full no later than one month before the date of your event to confirm your reservation.

The minimum spend value will be expected in full if the event is cancelled any later than 7 days before your event date, or 50% of the minimum spend value for 14 days.

The Minimum spend must be met by the end of the event date or the final bill will be increased to meet the minimum value required. (no credit will be provided)

You, the guest agree to take full responsibility for any damaged property belonging to the business.

Any value owed will be paid in full no later than two weeks after receiving notice of the bill.

You may ask for receipt of any costs you are required to pay for)

Prices may vary from the time you initially make a reservation too when you arrive on the day of your event (unless they are pre agreed prices with management or part of the event package) They may also vary from our webpage.

CCTV is in operation at all times throughout the venue

Pets - We may accept pets for a fully private event at the managers discretion. Otherwise we do not reserve spaces for parties with pets

Minors - Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings after 7pm, we typically do not allow anyone under the age of 18. However during a fully private function management may allow for minors to stay at the venue.

Challenge 25 - In accordance with Brighton and Hove licensing if you are lucky enough to look under the age of 25 staff are required to ask for proof of age and will ask to see either a valid, passport, drivers license or ID with the "PASS" symbol. guests that are not able to provide one of these will not be served restricted products under any circumstance.

Hen/Stag - If you are planning a Hen or Stag event please be aware the business has strict rules on decorum, dress code and activities. We will accept these types of events providing they meet our licensable activities closely. Guests will be expected to be well behaved, dressed well and are not to disrupt other customers or our neighbours

Dress Code - Although we can have some flexibility around a fully private event, typically we expect guests to be dressed, smartly or in cocktail attire. No tracksuits

Allergies/Dietary requirements - Please make sure any special requirements and allergies are mentioned next to the pre ordered meals, and make sure servers are aware of the guest on the day of the event While we take great care to accommodate your needs, our kitchen operates in an open environment, and we cannot guarantee the absence of allergies in any dish or drink

Temporary Event Notice License - .Where an extended license has been purchased, be aware the permissions on it are provided by Brighton and Hove Licensing, not the business itself. This means changes may be made at any time without notice that are out of the businesses control. We cannot offer any refunds for changes made to the temporary license.

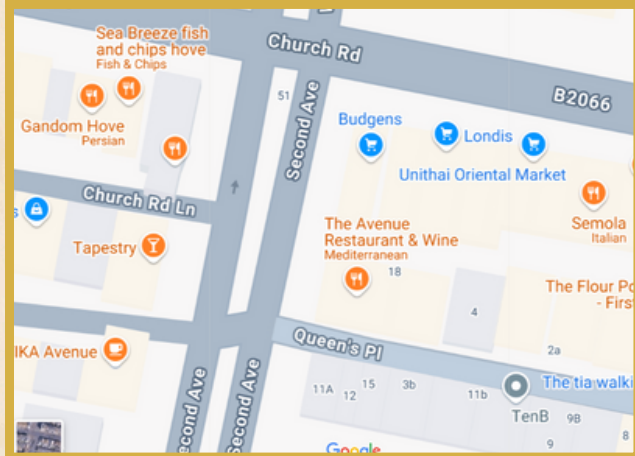

All bookings must include arrival drinks per head and any packages chosen need to include each person in the party. (E.g. A party of x20 must have Canapes x20 or silver canapes x10 + Deluxe Canapes x10 etc.)

A discretionary 12.5% service charge will be added to your final invoice which goes directly to the staff at the end of the event.

Force Majeure - In no event shall the business be responsible or liable for any failure or delay in the performance of its obligations hereunder arising out of or caused by, directly or indirectly, forces beyond its control, including, without limitation, pandemics, strikes, work stoppages, equipment failure, accidents, acts of war or terrorism, civil or military disturbances, nuclear or natural catastrophes or acts of God, and interruptions, loss or malfunctions of utilities, communications or computer (software and hardware) services; it being understood that the business maintains good service records and shall use reasonable efforts which are consistent with accepted practices in the industry to resume performance as soon as practicable under the circumstances.
